

NGHS students give a lucky elementary class a tour of the barn and let them visit with piglets and chicks.

Chickens living in the barn provide eggs for our cafeteria, teacher to purchase, and other schools in the county.