

Carpentry II students built two benches during the spring of 2017 to be placed at the newly constructed native meadow.

A bat box constructed by a Carpentry I student, ready to be hung on campus.

Completed bird boxes hanging along the campus nature trail.